CÓD IOMPAIR / CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

Students must speak Irish at all times while attending the course. A high standard of behaviour will be expected of all students. Every student should show respect for his or her fellow students, teachers/leaders, camp staff and the ideals of the College.

No student is allowed bring reading material in English. All personal music systems are prohibited. The use of cigarettes, alcohol and illegal substances is prohibited. The use of mobile phones will be restricted.

Students must take an active part in College activities. Students must remain within the grounds of the College unless accompanied by leaders or with special permission. The parents/guardians of children who fail to comply with these standards will be notified immediately.

Don tuismitheoir/caomhnóir agus don dalta: For the parent/guardian and the student.

Táimid sásta glacadh agus cloí le cód iompair an Choláiste / We are willing to accept and abide by the College's code of behaviour.

Tuigimid má bhristear na rialacha seo go bhfuil seans go n-iarrfar ar thuismitheoirí / ar chaomhnóirí an dalta a thabhairt abhaile ón gColáiste, ag brath ar phróiseas achomhairc. We understand that any breach of these rules may result in parents/guardians being asked to remove students from the college, subject to an appeals process.

Don dalta: Geallaim go ndéanfaidh mé mo lán-dícheall Gaeilge a labhairt le linn an chúrsa. For the student: I promise to speak Irish to the best of my ability throughout the course.

AN CEANTAR / LOCALITY & LÓISTÍN /ACCOMMODATION

CNOC AN DÚIN was once a Gaeltacht area. It is situated in east Cork 5kms. beyond Ballymacoda Village - across the bay from Youghal. The camp is owned by the Dominican Order and Fr. Luuk Jensen O.P. is the camp director. Knockadoon operates as a holiday camp. The accommodation is basic but adequate.

CÉ SINNE – AN COLÁISTE AGUS FOIREANN AN CHOLÁISTE

Each summer Cúram organises an Irish College in Knockadoon. This college is in existence since 1975 and is unique in many ways.

1. VOLUNTARY SPIRIT:

All the organisers and group leaders give freely of their time.

2. PERSONAL ATTENTION:

A large number of young leaders provide a high level of supervision and attention.

3. CULTURE AND SPORT:

Coláiste Cúram offers a wide range of cultural and sporting activities.

The college has the following aims:

1. SAOL IOMLÁN TRÍ GHAEILGE:

To create a community of Irish speakers for 3 weeks providing young people with an opportunity to live a full life through Irish.

2. CULTÚR NA HÉIREANN:

To enable students to learn and appreciate Irish games, music, song and dance.

3. SPIORAD POBAIL:

To develop a sense of community spirit among the students.

4. FORBAIRT AN DUINE:

To develop the creative personality of the students through courses such as art, music, drama etc.

BRONNADH NA NDUAISEANNA AGUS BRONNADH NA NGRADAM:

Students who have demonstrated a satisfactory commitment to the language and activities of the Coláiste are awarded a certificate or fáinne at the conclusion of the course.

CÚRSAÍ:

Ranganna Gaeilge, Cluichí: peil, iománaíocht, cispheil, eitpheil, ficheall, táiplis, púl, badmantan, tag rugbaí agus sacar, Cór, Grúpa Ceoil, Giotár, Rince Seite, Ealaín agus Drámaíocht.

SIAMSAÍOCHT / ACTIVITIES:
